We have been remiss in not sooner noting the new omnibus of Williamson and Faris. It was built at St. Louis and is "a thing of beauty." It gives quite a city-like appearance to our streets. They deserve much credit for their enterprise.

MORE OF THE CHANGE AT HINZIE'S.—The new administration at Hinzle's, led by the present business manager, Mr. Briggs, has adopted a revised uniform price list. Prices to cash buyers will hereafter be the same as the wholesale prices to the railroad. All orders for plantation supplies also at wholesale prices.

We invite attention to the prospectus of the St. Louis Republican in another column. We need not say that it is a journal of great and superior excellence. We will club the Weekly with the FREE PRESS at $3 a year for both.

See card of Dr. Wm. Myers in our columns. We find him a pleasant intelligent gentleman, and he comes with good endorsements as a professional man. Office for the present at Fromme's Drugstore.

Take Notice.
C. H. Briggs has resumed possession of all his notes and accounts. All persons knowing themselves indebted to him, will please come forward and settle at once. He may be found at the Drugstore of Raynolds & Daniel.

The ungathered cotton is fully open, and the fields remind us of a snow be-sprinkled landscape at the North. They are indeed "white unto the harvest."

Among the various attractions in the mercantile line, purchasers may do themselves great injustice by failing to call at Lu. J. DAILEY'S. He has a fine and full stock of reasonable goods of all descriptions. Call and examine.

SOMETHING NEW.—Fritz Lange has made important additions to his business. He now keeps coffee, sugar and groceries generally in stock. Fancy groceries a specialty. A full line of fruits and vegetables. A good stock of articles in his line always on hand. Fritz is a square and liberal dealer. Give him a call.

We have never seen so much furniture, nor of so fine a quality in our town before. Both our establishments have larger stocks than ever.

Important Meeting.
There will be a meeting of the churches of Christ in southwestern Texas, on the first Thursday in February next, at the Christian Church in San Marcos. The churches are requested to send delegates. It is very desirable that every Christian preacher in southwestern Texas should be present. Those expecting to attend are requested to drop a postal to me at San Marcos.

Respectfully,
D. A. LEAK, Minister Christian Church.
San Marcos, Nov. 23, 1882.

P. S.—Papers in southwestern Texas, friendly to the cause of religion, are requested to publish.

Will somebody go and tell Mrs. Newt. Travis how much money she could have saved by getting her carpet in Austin instead of buying from Word Nance? Now do tell.

MULES FOR SALE.—Our friend W. O. Thomas has bought some 30 or 40 mules out west, which he will have here to-morrow and wishes to sell.

A Commendable Home Enterprise.
We have been quite remiss of duty in not sooner speaking of an enterprise in our midst, which is important and creditable to our town. We allude to the wagon and carriage factory of W. Lanham. This gentleman, formerly of Lockhart, later of Austin, has been here in business some three or four months. He occupies the former stand of Rau Bro's, and we are pleased to learn has purchased that property, so well adapted to his business. His shops, both for wood and iron work, are complete, and well supplied with tools and facilities of the most approved modern styles. He has several employees, including one of the finest carriage painters to be found anywhere. Since he came here, he has turned out no less than ten carriages, and orders continue to come in. He also does general blacksmith and woodwork, and repairing of all kinds. We saw some of his carriages, which are hard to excel in substantial character and style of finish.

Mr. Lanham is a permanent fixture of our town. We are proud to introduce him to the people of this region, and cordially commend him to their patronage.

Personal.
J. M. Killough has returned from Austin.

Mr. Fry was considerably injured by a fall a few days since, but we are glad to learn is again able to be about.

Rev. H. A. Graves, now of Mill Creek circuit, called on us last week. Also Rev. Mr. Black, of San Marcos circuit.

Miss Vanlandingham returned to Missouri last week. During her short stay we believe she made friends who would be glad to see her here again.

Miss Painter, of San Antonio, who had been spending some weeks at Austin, stopped over a day or two on her return at Mr. Pegues, the first of the week.

Miss Melasky, of Austin, came over one day last week to see her friend Miss Fox. She is a native of this place, her father having been in business in San Marcos at an early day, as our older citizens may recollect.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church, under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Martin, still continues. He seems to be a gentleman of considerable force of character, and very much in earnest.

We regret to learn of the death of a child of Mrs. Cora V. Thomas, also that Mr. Word, formerly of this place, has lost some of his children by death. The disease is reported to have been diphtheria.

Miss Mitchell and Miss Storta, of Kyle Seminary, were among those from a distance who were in attendance at the Baptist church at this place on Sunday. Miss Mitchell has charge of the male department of the Seminary and Miss Storta of the music department. We are pleased to learn that the school is more prosperous than ever before.

Mr. Briggs, the manager of Hinzle's establishment here, has rented the dwelling house of our friend S. J. Thomas, adjoining the "Hermitage." It has been unoccupied for some eighteen months, the only reason being that it was unfenced, and the house a little out of repair; for otherwise it is one of the very nicest places to live in San Marcos. Mr. Briggs, by authority of the owner, has had the house repaired, and we are glad to learn will have the grounds fenced. Then it will surely be in demand, either for purchase or rent. The situation is elevated, facing the southern breeze, the house comfortable and spacious, there is a good cistern; a place for a good garden; the view is very fine; the neighborhood good; it is exempt from mud; convenient to schools; and while it is retired, the main street, with the best sidewalks to the business part of town, churches, etc., passes just opposite and near by. In short, we don't know of another place in town, which is for sale, for the price, which will compare with it for beauty and convenience of location.
